Where am I covered?

This policy provides cover depending on the area of the world you select. The area of cover is shown on your certificate of insurance.

What are my obligations?

- Premiums must be paid as shown in your policy documentation. We may refuse a claim if your premium is not up to date.
- You must pay premiums due for additions to the policy by the due date on the invoice issued by us.
- You must take all reasonable care to provide accurate information when completing any requested forms.
- You must provide the members (and their dependants if applicable) full name, gender, date of birth, nationality and country of residence.
- You must ensure that all members within the group scheme are made aware of their level of cover, the options that have been chosen (where applicable), medical underwriting terms, policy terms, conditions, claims procedures and any changes or alterations made.
- You must inform all members of the termination or non-renewal of their cover (if applicable) under the policy.
- You must ensure that the member and dependant membership cards are destroyed on termination of their coverage.
- You must notify all additions or deletions of members, and their eligible dependants within 30 days of their addition and/or deletion.

When and how do I pay?

If you have claimed there will be no refund and you still may owe us outstanding frequency payments (monthly, quarterly, semi annual).

- Premiums are payable in advance of cover being provided under this policy.
- Premiums can be paid monthly, quarterly, semi-annually or annually BUT this is still an annual contract of insurance.
- Premiums are payable in the currency which you elected at the start of your policy.
- Annual premiums may be paid by bank transfer or credit card. Semi annual, quarterly or monthly premiums are payable by credit card only (in some countries, monthly direct debits/SEPA may be available).
- Any taxes applicable will be collected along with your premium payments in the same frequency and method of payment.

When does the cover start and end?

Your policy will run for 12 months from the start date shown in your quote or membership certificate. This is an annually renewable contract.

How do I cancel the contract?

You must give us 14 days' notice in writing at the address shown on the policy documentation. We will then cancel the policy from the date of receipt. If you cancel the plan we reserve the right to charge an administration fee.
